Admission, Course of Instruction, Etc.

TERMS OF ADMISSION.

Candidates for admission to the Freshman Class are examined in Geography, Vulgar Arithmetic, and Algebra, through Simple Equations; in English, Latin, and Greek Grammar, including Prosody; in Cicero's Select Orations; the whole of Virgil; Cæsar's Commentaries, or Sallust; Jacob's, Colton's, or Felton's Greek Reader; and Xenophon's Anabasis, or the Greek Testament.

Candidates for admission to an advanced standing, must also be examined in the studies that have been pursued by the Class which they wish to enter, or in others equivalent to those.

The stated time for admission is on the day preceding Commencement; but persons may be examined in any other part of the College Terms.

Testimonials of good moral character are in all cases required, and a probation of six months before students are matriculated, during which time they are subject to all the laws and regulations of College.

Many who apply for admission are imperfectly prepared in the English studies, particularly in Arithmetic and Geography. As these studies are not pursued in College, it is necessary that the preparation in them should be full and thorough.

Greek and Roman Antiquities are studied in connection with the Languages throughout the Course, and the following books are recommended for reference: Butler's Atlas Classica, Anthon's Classical Dictionary, Eschenburgh's Manual, Smith's Dictionary of Greek and Roman Antiquities: also Andrews and Stoddard's Latin Grammar, Crosby's or Sophocles' Greek Grammar, Ramshorn's Latin Synonymes, Leverett's Latin Lexicon, Liddell and Scott's Greek Lexicon.

6. Rhetoric, first term—to the Senior Class.
7. Intellectual and Moral Philosophy, first and second term—to the Senior Class.
8. International Law, second term—to the Senior Class.

OBSERVATORIES, APPARATUS, ETC.

The lectures on Astronomy are accompanied by celestial observations, and instruction in the use of instruments. An Astronomical Observatory supplies important facilities for these purposes; and a Magnetic Observatory for ascertaining and exhibiting the laws of Terrestrial Magnetism. Constant observations are made on the Barometer, Thermometer, and Hygrometer.

The Philosophical and Chemical Apparatus has been enlarged by the Alumni at an expense of several thousand dollars, and every effort is made to do justice to the increasing demands of the Physical Sciences.

In addition to the former Cabinet, Prof. Emmons has presented to the College his large and valuable collections in Mineralogy and Geology; and these, arranged for the purposes of study, furnish ample facilities for illustration in those departments. Prof. E. will devote the larger portion of the year to instruction in the various branches of Natural History, and to further collections.

The instructions in Anatomy and Physiology, are illustrated by the Skeleton and Manikin.

A well furnished Gymnasium, with which are connected facilities for bathing, is now provided. Many also find healthful exercise during a part of the year in connexion with the "Horticultural and Landscape Gardening Association."

DECLAMATIONS.

Declamations from all the classes every Wednesday, in the Chapel.

ATTENDANCE.

Punctual attendance is required at church, and at morning and evening prayers, as well as on other College exercises. A record is kept of all delinquencies in these duties, and with an account of the general deportment of each student, is sent to his parents or guardian at the close of each term.

EXAMINATIONS.

All the classes are examined before the close of the second term.
The Senior Class, the third Wednesday in July and the day previous.
The three lower classes, the week before Commencement.

PUBLIC EXHIBITIONS.

Of the Junior Class, the close of the second term.
Of the Adelphic Union Society, third Wednesday in July.
Prize Rhetorical Exercise, the evening before Commencement.

VACATIONS.

The FIRST, from Commencement, four weeks.
The SECOND, from the second Wednesday in December, six weeks.
The THIRD, from the first Wednesday in May, three weeks.
COMMENCEMENT is on the third Wednesday in August.

Students are required to be present the whole of term time, unless excused by the President. The loss of even a few days, especially at the beginning of a term, is exceedingly undesirable.

EXPENSES.

Tuition, $10 a term,	$30 00	$30 00
Room Rent, Library charges, ordinary repairs, &c.,	9 00	12 00
Board, from $1 50 to $2 00 per week,	60 00	80 00
Washing,	6 00	8 00
Fuel and Lights,	5 00	10 00
	$110 00	$140 00

The amount of incidental expenses will depend very much on the habits of the student and the liberality of his allowance. It is earnestly recommended to Parents and Guardians not to authorize their sons and wards to obtain credit here, and not to pay debts contracted without their authority.

No back tuition is required; but those who enter on an advanced standing, unless they come from another College, pay the following sums as entrance money, viz: Sophomores, $10; Juniors, $15; Seniors, $20.

The income of the Charity Funds, amounting to about eight hundred dollars per annum, is distributed among indigent young men of merit, to aid them in the payment of their bills. This pays about two-thirds of the tuition of those who apply. No application for this aid will be considered while the applicant is in arrears for other charge besi des tuition, in more than one term bill.

LIBRARIES.

The College Library is open the first Friday of the term, and every Wednesday and Saturday, and for the return of books, the last Monday of the term.

The Libraries of the Literary Societies are open to all Classes Wednesdays and Saturdays.

The Franklin Library is open at the beginning of every term, for the delivery of text books to all the Classes.

Text books for the whole course, may, in most cases, be procured from the Franklin Library; for the use of which, those entering Freshmen, pay $4; Sophomores, $3; Juniors, $2; Seniors, $1.

The Theological Library is open every Saturday.
